In the High Court of Punjab & Haryana at Chandigarh

RSA No. 739 of 1984(O&M)

Date of decision: 23.8.2006

Smt. Kaushalya Devi Vs. Mehar Singh and others

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE UMA NATH SINGH

Present: Mr.Ramesh Sharma, Advocate, for the appellant

Mr. Sanjay Majithia, Advocate, for the respondents.

UMA NATH SINGH, J.

This is an old Regular Second Appeal of 1984. It appears that the appeal was admitted without framing of question of law as it was not mandatory to do so. Learned counsel has now filed an application with question of law which as per his submission appears to be as: (i) if a woman is staying with a male for some time, there is presumption that both are legally wedded couple; (ii) allegation as regards suppression of facts; and (iii) an un-registered Will if duly attested by requisite number of witnesses, will get the status of a registered Will for the purpose of enforcement. These questions do not appear to be questions of law much less to say the substantial questions of law. Accordingly, RSA (being No. 739 of 1984) being devoid of substantial question of law, is hereby dismissed.
